Dear Mr. Thompson

Herewith I send you a list of the lots & also the prices of the things bought at Cook's sale Friday last. I marked the Catalogue in a hurry & I may have made a mistake as I think I included lot 611. as bought tho. I did not get as it exceeded your limit & it was not one that I especially wanted myself.

With Compliments

I remain
Yours faithfully
Thomas H. Court

Dear Mr. Thompson

Herewith ^{in Catalogue} are the prices of the lots you got on the other side on the numbers of the lots I did not get & the prices they fetched. I make the total brought amount to £294. 14. 6.

With Compliments

I remain

Yours faithfully
Thomas & Co

P.S. On Tuesday as I told you there are a number of old instruments at Steven.
Unless I hear from you not to do so I shall be going for them myself if they go cheap if you want me to get them for you please send me on your prices.

Dear Mr. Thompson

22 Dec 1920

Herewith I send detailed statement, which I trust you will find in order I have gone very carefully over it & made it all right.

I am going up to Exeter again on the 28th inst. & will let you know when the actual date of the next sale is fixed. If you let me have the Catalogue I will annotate it for you.

If anything old or likely to suit you comes up at Stroom in the mean time I will call on you on Thursday afternoons & let you know all about it so that we may not run each other & so get it cheap I want to keep the price of these things down at a low

What till all the Irish Collection has been sold I am sure that I can stand off all serious opposition for most of the things & even for the order & price part I do not know of any collectors or dealers that are likely to cause us any trouble except say for about a dozen or two of the very rarest instruments.

With Compliments & thanks

I remain

Yours very truly

Thomas H. Couch
